Logical Systems, Inc. named Rockwell Automation System Integrator of the Year

MEMPHIS, TN, March 28, 2022 – Logical Systems, Inc. (LSI) is pleased to announce that Rockwell Automation, the world’s largest company dedicated to industrial automation and digital transformation, has named it winner of the first-ever System Integrator of the Year during the 2022 PartnerNetwork Conference.

The System Integrator of the Year award honors the achievements of a North American Gold or Platinum-level system integrator that has achieved the highest year-over-year revenue growth with Rockwell Automation.

“LSI has been a valued partner within Rockwell’s System Integrator Partner Program for more than 20 years”, said Darin Harbor, Director of North America System Integrator Partners at Rockwell Automation. “We are honored to recognize them with this award in acknowledgment of their achievement with the highest level of year-over-year growth amongst all our Gold and Platinum level partners.”

“We are excited and honored to receive the System Integrator of the Year Award. Our long-standing partnership with Rockwell Automation is important for our global service offering as a leading system integrator,” said Nick Riggio, President at LSI. “This award is a testament to the excellence of our talented team and the trust that our clients put in us to deliver innovative solutions. We are eager to continue to bring transformative solutions to our clients together with Rockwell Automation.”
